

Misty Nelson

Misty Nelson has been dancing since 1982 under the instruction of Nancy Molloy of Molloy and Company dance studio with focus on Jazz, Tap and Ballet. Misty has had the pleasure of studying under numerous instructors such as Nancy Molloy, Deril Balough, El Gabriel, Mary Six, Fred Mann III, Daryl Retter and Tommy Retter and was an assistant to Pat Simms at the Ballet Barre dance studio. Misty has been with DTF teaching Jazz and Tap for all ages since 2002, with majority of focus on Tap. Misty has choreographed and assisted with choreography for DTF's shows such as The Christmas Angel, Thumbelina, When the Northern Lights Come Out to Play and various other seasonal performances.

Misty received an Excellent rating from Dance Excellence in Los Angeles for some of her choreography.